Entrance Examination in English for the Division of Economics,
Graduate School of Human and Socio-Environmental Studies
Kanazawa University

Applicants who successfully pass this entrance examination enter the Graduate School in October 2017

1. Admission Policy

The Quantitative Economics Program is a special program in the Division of Economics aiming to equip students with mathematical modelling techniques (microeconomics/macroeconomics) and data analysis techniques (statistics/econometrics), fostering in them high-level analytical skills necessary to solve real issues. Students in this program belong to the economic theory and policy course, under the Division of Economics of the Graduate School of Human and Socio-Environment Studies.

Students in the program should have basic mathematical knowledge and a desire to work in a government post, a position in an international organization, or a similar occupation that requires them to present tangible solutions to national- and international-level political, economic, and social issues. Subjects in this program are in principle taught in English.

2. Available openings:

A few students.

3. Qualifications for applying:

The Applicant must be: (1) a graduate of an accredited university outside of Japan or an enrolled university student who has a reasonable expectation of graduating by September 30, 2017; (2) a candidate recommended by the Japanese Minister of Education; or (3) a candidate judged by the Graduate School to have received a level of education equalling or exceeding the above categories.

Note: Candidates who qualify by individual judgment under (3) are as follows: Those who qualify for special admission to the third year of universities, twenty-two years old or older at the time of entrance, and either of the following:

- (a) Have studied at a non-degree graduate program at a junior college or technical college, etc., after qualifying to the special admission year of universities;
- (b) Have experience of practical business affairs in international organizations abroad, etc.; or
- (c) Are affiliated with the Graduate School as a research student or with the School of Economics as a non-matriculating undergraduate student for at least one semester and who is judged by the Graduate School to be sufficiently knowledgeable.

4. Prior Judgment of Qualifications:

Those who would like to apply for a prior judgment of qualifications under 3. (3)(a), (b), or (c) must send all of the following materials by registered mail, with the “Application for a Prior Judgment of Qualifications, the Graduate School of Human and Socio-Environmental Studies” written in red on the front of the envelope, to the same address as for the Application below (see 6. (2)) by May 26, 2017. The Graduate School of Human and Socio-Environmental Studies will make prior judgments individually based on the following:

- (1) Application for a Prior Judgment of Qualifications (Provided upon request by e-mail below at 10. (1)).
- (2) Graduation certificate or a testimony of expected graduation issued by the applicant's last school.
- (3) Academic transcript (listing "grades" or "marks") issued by the applicant's last school.
- (4) Rules and syllabus of the applicant's last school or copies of equivalent documents.
- (5) Curriculum vitae of the applicant (free form).
- (6) A document demonstrating that the applicant has experience in practical business affairs or activity (if applying under 3. (3) (b)) (free form).
- (7) A document of the content of the experience or activity (written by the supervisors for the activity if applying under 3. (3) (b)) (free form).
- (8) Research plan: Explanation of the applicant's research plan at the Graduate School and its relationship to the applicant's past experience or activity, hope for the future, etc. (Provided upon request by e-mail).
- (9) Return envelope (235 mm × 120 mm, self-addressed and, in the case of domestic applicants, self-stamped with 792 yen in postage).

Note 1: Results will be sent by the beginning of June 2017 The material submitted will not be returned.

Note 2: Certificates and documents from foreign schools and bodies must be submitted with their translation into Japanese and must include appropriate explanation.

5. Admission Procedures:

Applicants must complete all of the following in English:

- (1) Admissions Application Package. (Provided upon request. applicants residing overseas can download the application package by visiting the Graduate School of Human and Socio-Environmental Studies' homepage:
<http://human-socio.w3.kanazawa-u.ac.jp/>)
- (2) Academic transcript (listing "grades" or "marks") issued by the applicant's university.
- (3) Graduation Certificate or a Testimony of Expected Graduation, issued by the applicant's university or academic supervisor.
- (4) Research plan: Covering the applicant's education history and what he/she intends to study at the Graduate School.
- (5) Curriculum vitae of the applicant (free form).
- (6) Letter of Recommendation written by the university president, the student's academic supervisor, or the department (or section) chief of your section.
- (7) Certificate of Residence or Certified Copy of Foreign Resident Registration (for foreigners who are already in Japan).
- (8) Two photos (alone, no hat, taken in the preceding 3 months, passport size) to be attached to the Application.
- (9) Certificate of Remittance: Pay the application fee (30,000 yen) through a bank transfer

(telegraphic). Use the designated form and fill out the necessary items (do not separate). Then, take it to the window of banking facilities that deal with telegraphic transfers. (Post office is not available.)

After the payment, applicants will receive a Receipt and Certificate of Remittance. Please check the reception stamps of the banking facilities and send the Certificate of Remittance together with the other application documents. Applicants should keep the receipt as a record.

The handling charge should be paid by the applicant. In the case of transfer from the head office or branch office of our designated bank, a handling charge will be unnecessary.

Application fees, once paid, are non-refundable and will not be returned for any reason. However, if, after the application fee has been paid, the applicant wishes to terminate his/her application, procedures for the return of the fee can be made by contacting the office listed below. Additionally, at the time of the return of the fee, both a receipt (「領収書(本人控)」) and a certificate of remittance (「振込金証明書(提出用)」) documenting submission are required.
