

Enrollment in October 2024 (Reiwa 6) and April 2025 (Reiwa 7)
Changes in Entrance Examinations for the Graduate School of Human and Socio-Environmental Studies (Master's Program)

We will change the entrance examinations to the Graduate School of Humanities and Social Sciences (Master's Program) for October 2024 (Reiwa 6) and April 2025 (Reiwa 7) entrances as follows.

[Division of Economics]

1. Discontinuation of Quantitative Economics Program

"Quantitative Economics Program" will not be called.

Please apply to "General Selection", "Special Selection for International Students (Face-to-face Only)", or "Selection for Applicants Residing Overseas" (please check the application qualifications in the student recruitment guidelines scheduled to be released in March.).

2. Change of test method

We will discontinue the written examination for specialized subjects in the "General Selection" and "Special Selection for International Students", and will replace it with a preliminary assignment (writing your research plan in detail in Japanese or English). Please read the application guidelines released later, for details.

[Division of International Studies]

1. Discontinuation of "English Program"

The call for "English Program" will be discontinued.

Please apply to "General Selection", "Special Selection for International Students (Face-to-face Only)", or "Selection for Applicants Residing Overseas" (please check the application qualifications in the student recruitment guidelines scheduled to be released in March.).